

PRIVACY POLICY

This site respects the privacy of people who visit our websites, send us an email or participate in the features and services we offer online. We take the privacy of you, the user of the website, very seriously, and use security measures to protect your online privacy. Because the Ontario car dealer collects visitor information for car dealer websites, we have established this privacy policy to help you know the terms and conditions that pertain to the collection and use of this information. This description outlines the types of information we gather, how they are used, and for what goals. The Ontario car dealership, online privacy policy, and procedures related to online privacy have been developed using the following guidelines:

- Without spam: we avoid sending unsolicited communications by limiting the contact of the Ontario car dealer to people who voluntarily provided their contact information, agreed to receive communications from the Ontario car dealer, inquire about the products and services of the car dealer from Ontario and those who did business with us in the past. We allow email and telephone contact recipients to unsubscribe from future correspondence easily.
- Collection for Users: We receive information online originally to give Ontario car dealership visitors with more relevant knowledge on Ontario car dealership websites, such as search results to match uses where they are interested.
- Security: We take reasonable physical, electronic, and administrative measures to protect the information you provide to us.
- Share: We carefully give information with Ontario car dealer business associates to provide important products and services. We avoid selling or transferring your personal information to third parties who are not involved in the delivery of products, services, and services related to the Ontario car dealership.

• Website User Agreement

Please read this policy carefully to know Ontario car dealer policies and practices about your information and how we manage it. If you do not agree with Ontario car dealer policies and practices, you will not be able to use the Ontario car dealer websites. By visiting or using the Ontario car dealer websites, you accept this privacy policy. This policy may modify anytime. Proceeded use of the Ontario car dealership websites after making modifications is considered acceptance of those modifications. Consequently, review the renewed policy always.

• Children under 13 years.

Ontario car dealer websites are not meant for children below 13. No one below the age of 13 can present information about the websites. We do not deliberately obtain private information from children below 13. If you are below 13 years of age, do not use this website, register on the Ontario car dealership websites, buy through the Ontario car dealership websites, you practice interactive characteristics of the Ontario car dealership websites or present us with data about you, including your phone number, name, address, email address or a username you use. If we discover that we have collected or received personal information from a child under 13 without verification of parental consent, we will remove that information. If you believe we may have information from or about a child under 13, contact us using the information in the “Contact” section at the end of this policy.

- Data security

We have implemented measures designed to protect your personal information against accidental loss and unauthorized access, use, alteration, and disclosure. The contact information you provide to us (such as your email address, postal address or telephone number) is stored on the web servers of the Dr.Guthy App, and we use encryption technologies for payment and financial information. But the security of your information is also up to you. When we have provided you with a password (or where you have chosen) to access certain parts of the Dr.Guthy App websites, you are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of this password. We ask that you not share your password with anyone. Using an unsecured Internet connection (such as unsecured public WiFi) can also make your information compromised by third parties. Unfortunately, the transfer of information via the Internet is never completely secure. Although we strive to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee the security of your personal information that is sent to the websites of Dr.Guthy App. Any transfer of personal data is at your own risk. We are not responsible for circumventing privacy settings or security measures on Dr.Guthy App websites.

- Information we collect about you and how we collect it

We collect various types of information from and about users of Dr.Guthy App websites, which include:

- Information about your use of Dr.Guthy App websites and how you visit them, such as information about your browser, service provider, Internet connection, IP address, and search engines used to find car dealership websites for Ontario
- Information you choose to provide (for example, by completing forms or applications on the websites of Dr.Guthy Apps that may allow you to be personally identified, such as your name, mailing address, email address, telephone number, other information that can be used to identify you, or any additional identifying information that can contact you online or offline (“Personally Identifiable Information”). The use of personally identifiable information by the Dr.Guthy App includes the provision of the information you have requested about the products or services of the Dr.Guthy App, and for the marketing and promotion of such products and services.
- Records and copies of your correspondence with us when you contact us (such as emails, live chat features, and phone records).
- Details of transactions that you initiate or execute through the websites of Dr.Guthy App, including financial information (such as credit applications submitted through the websites of Dr.Guthy App)

- Information about you, but does not identify you personally, such as navigation information about the links that you click on the Dr.Guthy App websites, search queries and other information that you produce when interacting with the dealership websites of Ontario cars, which may or may not be stored with personal information.

- We collect this information:

- Immediately from you when you provide it to us (for example, when you submit forms or requests to us online).

- Automatically while you navigate through Dr.Guthy App websites (as further described in the following section of this policy).

- From third parties, such as advertising companies that help us find potential customers. We store such information following the standards set out in this privacy policy, as we do with all other personal information that you provide.

- Information we collect through automated data collection technologies.

We use automatic data collection technologies to collect certain information about your equipment, browsing actions and patterns, including: Details of your visits to Dr.Guthy App websites, such as traffic data, location data, logs and other communication data that you can access and use on the sites, such as information about your computer and internet connection, such as your IP address, operating system, and browser type. The information that we automatically collect is statistical and does not contain any personal information, but we may store it or link it to personal information that we collect or receive from third parties in other ways. This information is usually used to help us improve Dr.Guthy App websites to provide a better and more personalized service, including by enabling us to estimate Dr. Guthy App audience size and usage patterns; collect broad statistical data; analyze the use of Dr. Guthy App websites by visitors and tailor sites to their interests; save preferences of website users and speed up their searches; and recognize repeat visitors.

The technologies we use for this automatic data collection can be:

- Cookies (or “browser cookies”). A cookie is a small file that is placed on the hard drive of your computer. You can refuse to accept browser cookies or otherwise limit their use by activating the correct setting in your browser. If you select this setting, you may not have access to certain parts of Dr. Guthy App websites, or you may have to enter information more often. Unless you have adjusted your browser settings to refuse cookies (or otherwise restrict their use), Dr. Guthy App system will place cookies when you direct your browser to Dr. Guthy App websites.

- Flash cookies. Certain functions of Dr. Guthy App websites may use local stored objects (or “Flash cookies”) to collect and store information about your preferences and navigation to, from and on Dr. Guthy App websites. These can also be disabled or otherwise limited by the correct settings on your browser.

- Web beacons. Dr. Guthy App websites or email communication may also contain small electronic files known as web beacons (also known as “clear gifs”, “pixel tags” and “single-pixel gifs”) that Dr. Guthy App can use to count users who have those pages visited or opened an email and for other related website statistics.

- Similar technologies. Dr. Guthy App can use other similar technologies for the same purposes.

- How we use and disclose your information

We use information that has been collected about you or that you provide to us, including personal information:

- To present Dr. Guthy App websites and their content to you.
- To provide you with news or offers regarding Dr. Guthy App products, services, or financing of Dr. Guthy App products or services.
- To fulfill another purpose for which you provide information.
- To notify you of bills or payments that you have with Dr. Guthy App.
- To fulfill Dr. Guthy App obligations and enforce Dr. Guthy App rights arising from contracts concluded between you and us, including for invoicing and collection.
- To notify you of changes to Dr. Guthy App websites or products or services that we offer or offer through them.
- To enable you to participate in interactive functions on Dr. Guthy App websites.
- We describe in a different way when you provide the information.
- For any other purpose with your confirming permission.

We may disclose aggregated or statistical information about Dr. Guthy App users, and information that does not identify any person, without limitation.

We may disclose personal information that we collect or that you provide as described in this privacy policy:

- To Dr. Guthy App subsidiaries and affiliated companies.
- To contractors, service providers, and other third parties that we use to support Dr. Guthy App business (such as finance companies that permit you to use your Personal Information to offer credit offers).
- To achieve the goal for which you provide it. For example, if you request to contact a vehicle manufacturer with a specific question, we may send the content of that email and your email address to such recipients.
- For any other purpose that is disclosed by us when you provide the information.

We can also release your personal information:

- If Dr. Guthy App believes in good faith that such disclosure is appropriate to comply with a law, or legal process, including responding to requests from governments or regulatory authorities.
- In the event that Dr. Guthy App sells or otherwise transfers almost all, or even a specific part of his assets (such as the sale of the business to new owners), consumer information may be transferred as part of the transaction, either through sale, merger, divestment, restructuring, reorganization, dissolution or other transfer of assets, either as a going concern or as part of a bankruptcy, liquidation, similar procedure or sale of assets.
- To enforce or apply the terms and conditions of any sales or lease contract we have with you, or other agreements, including for billing and collection.
- If Dr. Guthy App believes in good faith that disclosure is appropriate to protect the rights, property, or safety of Dr. Guthy App, customers, or others. This may include exchanging information with other companies and organizations for fraud protection and credit risk reduction.

- We do not:

- Share personal information of customers with other companies for their direct marketing use.
- Sell, rent, or trade-in consumer information to third parties, other than described herein.
- Be responsible for any third parties who collect personally identifiable information about your online activities over time and on different websites when you use Dr. Guthy App websites.
- Offer website visitors the opportunity to view and correct previously submitted personal information. However, if you wish to update your current email address, mailing address or other information, please contact us at the email address or telephone number provided at the bottom of this policy.

- Agents

From time to time, Dr. Guthy App uses other companies and individuals to perform certain functions on Dr. Guthy App behalf. Examples of this are managing email services and carrying out special promotions. Such parties have access to personal information relevant to the performance of these functions and may not use or store the information for any other purpose. Subscribers or site visitors do not receive unsolicited email messages from agents working on Dr. Guthy App behalf.

- Access to Dr. Guthy App websites from outside the Canada

Dr. Guthy App websites are designed for and exclusively intended for residents of the Canada. We are not responsible for its use in another country or area. If you visit Dr. Guthy App websites from a location outside the Canada, your connection is to and from servers in the Canada. All information that you provide during your visit is processed and stored on the Dr. Guthy App web server and other internal systems in the Canada.

- External links

Dr. Guthy App websites contain links to other sites that are managed by third parties. Dr. Guthy App is in no way responsible for such third-party websites, including, without limitation, the privacy practices or the content of such sites. To help guarantee the protection of your privacy, we recommend that you read the privacy policy of each website that you visit.

- Public forums

Dr. Guthy App websites can use chat rooms, forums, message boards, and similar forum technologies at different times. Unless otherwise stated, all information released in these areas is public information, and you must be careful when you decide to release information about these areas, in particular, personal data.

- Choices about how we use and disclose your information

We strive to offer you options regarding the personal information you provide us. We have created mechanisms to give you the following control over your information:

- Tracking technologies and advertisements. You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies or to alert you when cookies are being sent. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of this site may not be accessible or work correctly.

- Opt-out procedures. If you do not want the company to use your address to promote Dr. Guthy App products or services, you can unsubscribe by sending us an email with your request to the email address listed at the bottom of this policy. On Dr. Guthy App websites, users can choose to no longer receive communications at the point where personal information is requested or through other identified means. If we have sent you a promotional email, you can send us an email asking to be omitted from future email distributions or to use the unsubscribe link in Dr. Guthy App email. This opt-out does not apply to non-advertising data provided to the company as a result of a product purchase, warranty registration, experience with product service, or other transactions (for example, Dr. Guthy App may contact you about a vehicle warranty issue). If you experience problems unsubscribing from Dr. Guthy App's communication, please contact us immediately at the telephone number and email address below.

Besides, some browsers include a "Do Not Track" (DNT) function that, when enabled, provides signals to websites and online services that you do not want to follow. Because there is not yet an accepted standard for responding to a DNT signal, we are currently not responding to DNT signals on this website or on websites on which we offer advertisements, content or other services.

- Changes to this policy / effective date
